- members include federal, state, and local agency staff, engineers, consultants, planners, elected officials, members of academia, students, and floodplain residents

What we do:

STATEMENTS OF PRINCIPLES/VALUES FOR INAFSM

- Proper and professional floodplain and stormwater management
- Providing a strong value proposition for all members
- Inspired commitment to professional development
- Educate and inform stakeholders
- Encourage and facilitate the exchange of ideas

Silent Auction Proceeds Support: INAFSM Scholarship Programs

Our Collegiate Scholarship Program is named in honor of Greg Main, former member and proud supporter of proper floodplain management and safe development. Greg was a big believer in educating yourself and working with others to learn and get new ideas for solving problems.

INAFSM offers two or more scholarships annually for college students who are completing a degree in a program related to INAFSM's mission. Undergraduate juniors or seniors as well as graduate students may apply.

Interested students may complete an application on line by visiting:
